

Cathy T. Mann, RVT, VTS \(Surgery\)

Cathy is currently employed by the Veterinary Specialty Hospital of the Carolinas and works as a Surgery and Anesthesia Nurse in all three of the VSH locations in Cary, Raleigh, and Durham, NC. She has worked in the specialty surgical field since 2005 and has a particular interest in orthopedic and minimally invasive surgery.

Cathy earned her Veterinary Technician Specialty in Surgery in 2014 and is active in the Academy of Veterinary Surgical Technicians as a Credentialing Committee Member since 2017 as well as President-Elect in 2018. Previously, she served as Public Relations Chair on the North Carolina Association of Veterinary Technicians Executive Board and is also a member of NAVTA.

Cathy has been a Registered Veterinary Technician in North Carolina since graduating from Central Carolina Community College in 2003 and also holds a bachelor's degree in Chemistry from Keene State College in Keene, NH. Cathy shares her home with her husband, Tim and two dogs – Zoey, a Miniature Pinscher and MacKenzie, a Jack Russell Terrier. In her free time, Cathy enjoys ziplining, hiking, birdwatching, and gardening.

